Curriculum Vitae

Harald Tauber started his musical training in Wiener Neustadt/Austria, where he studied singing pedagogics after finishing his A-levels. Afterwards, he completed a further study in the field of "musical, operetta and chanson" with honour at the Vienna conservatory. During his education, he already played some leading roles in THE ROCKY HORROR SHOW, JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR and BASTIEN AND BASTIENNE.

Right after graduating, he was engaged by the Vereinigte Bühnen Vienna for the world premiere of DANCE OF THE VAMPIRES, where he was also could be seen in MOZART! and JEKYLL & HYDE later on. Further engagements in Austria and abroad followed, including the German premiere of DRACULA in Tecklenburg, FALCO MEETS AMADEUS at the Wörtherseefestspiele in Klagenfurt and the German premiere of WE WILL ROCK YOU in Cologne. In 2008, he created the role of Ofir at the world premiere of TUTANCHAMUN in Gutenstein and is also featured on the Original Cast record. Until lately, he has been touring Germany with the gala MUSICAL FIEBER.

Apart from his job as a musical actor, he organized several galas in favour of the Austrian Cancer Aid, produced the CDs "Freiheit" and "Traumwelt and worked as a vocal coach. In 2006, he founded together with his colleagues Martin Berger and Matthias Simoner the band a³.
